Coach of the Year

A Winning Tradition

It's a family affair at Maryland, and in 2001 the Terrapin field hockey family celebrated the graduation of a senior class that posted a 79-15 overall record.

Two-time All-American and ACC MVP Autumn Welsh became Maryland field hockey's first-ever national player of the year when she was named the recipient of the 2002 Honda award.

Terps On The National Team

The Terrapins have long been a pipeline to the U.S. National and junior national teams. Recent Terp grads currently with the national team include Carla Tagliente, Keli Smith, Dina Rizzo and Katie Kauffman-Beach.

2002 Season Outlook

Reloaded Terrapins Take Aim At The Future

A winning tradition has been forged in College Park. Four consecutive ACC titles, seven straight appearances in the NCAA tournament, three trips in a row to the national semifinals, and an average of 19 victories per season since 1996 – Maryland field hockey is and has been synonymous with success.

The Terrapins earned the third NCAA championship in program history in 1999, and a season ago, nearly captured a fourth. A senior-laden squad plowed its way through the postseason, picking up the program's fifth conference title and steamrolling all the way to the national championship game. Though the Terps were left slightly unsatisfied with the final result, the Maryland field hockey family had much to be proud of – its seniors had never lost an ACC championship, the program had appeared in the national semifinals three times and the national title game twice. The Terps' eight seniors would graduate with a 79-15 career record across their four years, with the 2001 squad itself posting an elite 20-win season.

Following the graduation of a decorated senior class, 2001 ACC and NFHCA National Coach of the Year Missy Meharg has reloaded the Terrapins for 2002, determined to continue Maryland's championship tradition. Ten talented newcomers from far and wide have been added to the young, but experienced group of returning Terps, and a new wave of excitement and electricity fills the air as Maryland looks to continue its success on the turf.

"What I'm most excited about is the overall level of athleticism of the squad. It's fun and challenging to a new generation of Maryland hockey players," said the coach. "I'm so proud to have the new Terrapins here at Maryland and I'm very proud we recruit the best student-athletes."

A pair of seniors from different parts of the playing field have been called to lead this next generation as it embarks on its present journey. 2001 All-American Carissa Messimer heads up the Terrapin offense in the final year of an all-star career, while Mid-Atlantic all-region selection Kateri Simon directs the defense after a breakout junior campaign.

Colleen Barbieri

Messimer, who finished third on the squad in scoring a season ago, has continued to get better every year for the Terps. Her ability to control the outcome of a contest has been witnessed time and time again with a history of dramatic, game-winning goals. Messimer's particular flair for high performance in the postseason rivals that of any athlete at any level.

"I'm expecting good leadership from Carissa. She's been on the field since her freshman year and has been to three national semifinals," said Meharg.

"She's had the critical amount of experience to help guide and encourage this young team."

Simon, who battled several knee surgeries to land a regular role in the Terps' defense last season, has put forth a tremendous summer effort and once again represents one of Maryland's quickest and steadiest defensive players. Her experience and leadership will help set the tone for her young backfield mates.

Offense

On paper, the rest of the 2002 Terrapin squad appears young. But make no mistake about the group's experience, as the army of sophomores and redshirt freshmen that comprise the core of this team has already experienced championship success. The group knows what it takes to achieve, as it already has proven its mettle with an ACC championship and a run to the NCAA final game under its belt.

Maryland returns the leading scorer from its nationally top-rated offense in Mid-Atlantic All-Region selection and ACC Rookie of the Year Colleen Barbieri. Referred to by Meharg as "one of the most dynamic, fastest, threatening attackers in the nation," Barbieri made the transition from high school superstar to collegiate standout with a team-high 17 goals and 40 points in her rookie campaign, both marks that tied for sixth among the nation's leaders.

Making the transition from the backfield to the Terps' forward line during the team's spring season, Courtney Thornton has developed into a prolific scorer and will contribute to the attack.

"In the indoor season Courtney was really tenacious and had a lot of wonderful goals," said Meharg. "She is exceedingly fit and we'll enjoy her transition to the offense."

Spirited redshirt freshman Amber McQuillan put forth a terrific spring effort, and her athleticism and work ethic should earn her playing time on the right side of the forward line or in the midfield. Meharg continues to be impressed by her competitive outlook.

"Amber works really hard," said the coach. "She is the epitome of a team player, she fights all the time and her attitude is that of an elite athlete."

After sitting out her inaugural campaign while recovering from knee surgery, Laura Blongiewicz makes her return as a redshirt freshman, looking to become a factor in the Terps' offense. She begins the 2002 season in her best physical shape since arriving at Maryland.

Defense

The Terrapins, who boasted the top-ranked defense in the NCAA last season in addition to its juggernaut attack, return several key components looking to uphold that standard. Simon and the backfield will have to contend with the loss of national player of the year Autumn Welsh, but starters Sara Silvetti and Kristin Harris are back after contributing much in their first seasons on the field.

Silvetti, a sophomore fullback, learned much from Welsh in her redshirt season and played alongside her a year ago. Her play exceeded expectations in 2001 as she keyed a defensive effort that held opponents to 0.88 goals per game on only 5.6 shots per game.

"Sara possesses great vision and passing skills, and her defense in the back left quadrant is amazing," said Meharg.

Silvetti proved to be a viable option as a hitter on attack penalty corners as well, and registered seven goals on the season.

Harris, who gained much experience as a true freshman at halfback, drew 23 starting assignments in 2001 and will lead by example in 2002. The sophomore worked to improve her skills in the offseason and "has all of the tools to be an elite level field hockey player," according to Meharg.

U.S. Under-19 team member Emily Boyer saw action in 16 games last season and will also factor into the Terp backfield. She toured with the U.S. junior squad during the spring and summer, and her continued improvement and high fitness level has impressed the coaching staff.

A Winning Tradition

"Emily's tackling skills are excellent and she's been working a lot on her speed," explained Meharg. "She plays a lot of hockey throughout the year, and is therefore ready to make an impact for the Terps."

A versatile and dedicated team player, Christina Pernia will add depth and push for playing time on defense as well.

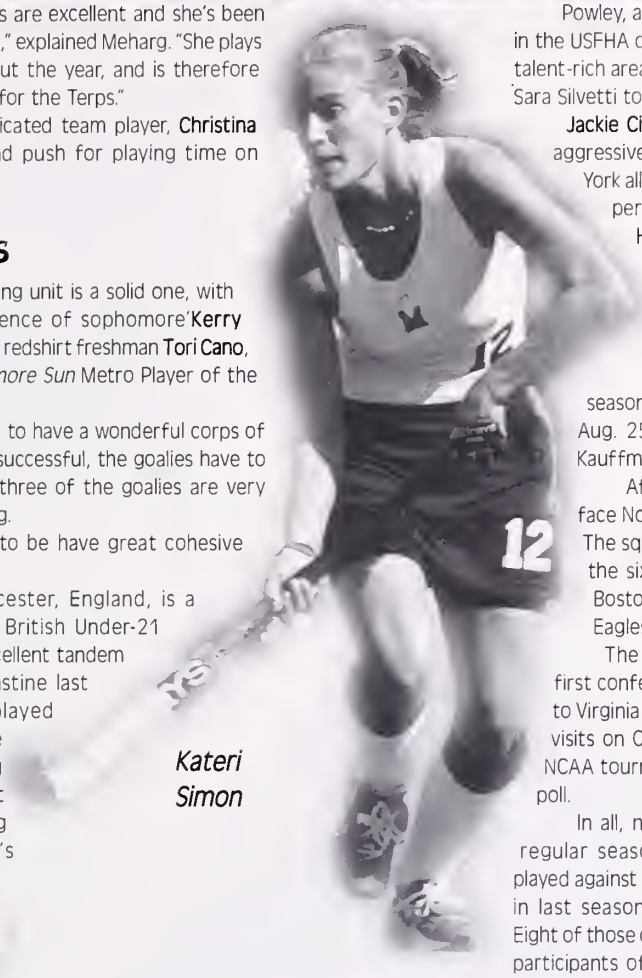
Goalkeepers

The Terps' goalkeeping unit is a solid one, with the international experience of sophomore Kerry Hearsey, the athleticism of redshirt freshman Tori Cano, and the addition of Baltimore Sun Metro Player of the Year Christina Restivo

"We're really pleased to have a wonderful corps of goalkeepers. To be really successful, the goalies have to push each other, and all three of the goalies are very selfless," explained Meharg.

"This group seems to be have great cohesive spirit."

Hearsey, from Leicester, England, is a former member of the British Under-21 squad who formed an excellent tandem with senior Ashley Hohnstine last season. Hearsey played enthusiastically for the Terps in 15 games, posting a 0.90 goals-against average and developing into one of the team's emotional leaders.



Kateri Simon

As a redshirt freshman, Cano benefited from her experience as a practice player and proved herself a capable netminder with a brilliant indoor spring season.

Restivo, the newcomer to the group, is both athletic and fit. She possesses the talent and maturity to contribute to the squad.

Newcomers

Joining Restivo in the Terps' incoming class is a pair of internationally accomplished athletes that will bolster Maryland's defensive efforts.

A native of Karlsruhe, Germany, Katrin Rummer comes to Maryland from the same area of the globe, and club team, as former Terp Caroline Walter. Rummer brings with her much experience as a former member of the German Under-21 squad, and a former captain of the Under-18 team. Rummer looks to contribute in the defensive midfield for the Terps, and has two seasons of athletic eligibility remaining.

"Katrin brings innate skills and experience to our team. Her experience through the competitive club system in Germany makes her so valuable to us," said Meharg.

Izzy Palmer, who recently was named to England's National Field Hockey team, comes to Maryland from "across the pond" looking to contribute to the Terps' defense. Palmer, who has one year of athletic eligibility remaining, will complete a second undergraduate degree in economics at Maryland before returning to England to train for the 2004 Olympics.

An offensive-defensive tandem of high school All-Americans also join the Terps for 2002, in Tiffany Marsh and Lauren Powley

Marsh, who attended the same high school as all-time Terp leading scorer Carla Tagliente, comes to Maryland as a precise and calculating forward. The USFHA junior national team member destroyed all of Tagliente's high school scoring records before following her footsteps to College Park.

Powley, a brilliant and powerful defender, has played on virtually every level in the USFHA development program. Powley comes to the squad from the same talent-rich area of Mountaintop, Pennsylvania that brought Carissa Messimer and Sara Silvetti to Maryland.

Jackie Ciconte, the 2002 Delaware High School Athlete of the Year, is an aggressive athlete looking to contribute to Maryland's offense, as is New York all-state selection Lauren Foundos and Montgomery Journal all-county performer Leah Harner-Kerlavage. Maryland all-state selection Jen Hasemeier and Washington Post All-Met honoree Rachel Mesa will factor into the Terp success.

The Schedule

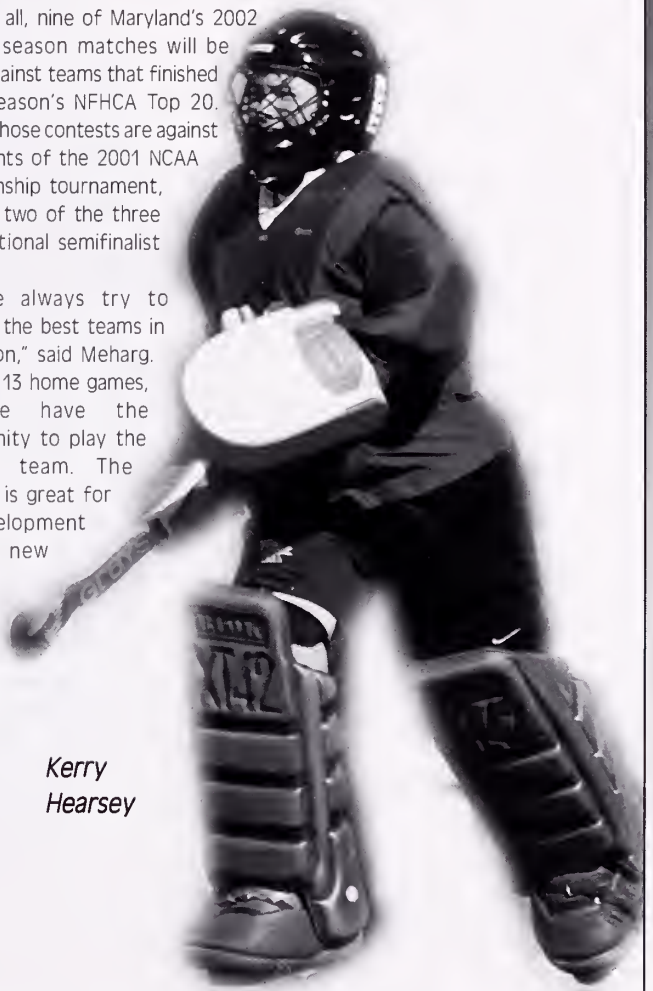
A challenging schedule lies ahead for the Terps in 2002. Early-season excitement includes a scrimmage with the U.S. National Team on Aug. 25, which now features four Maryland field hockey alums: Katie Kauffman-Beach, Carla Tagliente, Keli Smith and Dina Rizzo.

After the matchup with the Stars & Stripes, the Terrapins travel to face Northwestern and New Hampshire in Chicago on Aug. 31 and Sept. 1. The squad returns home to face Drexel and Old Dominion, before hosting the sixth-annual Terrapin Invitational. Two teams from the northeast, Boston University and Massachusetts, will take on the D.C. area-American Eagles and Terps in that event on Sept. 13 and 15.

The Terps' perennially rigorous ACC slate opens on the road, with their first conference game on Sept. 21 at Wake Forest. The Terrapins then travel to Virginia on Oct. 6 before Duke comes to town on Oct. 12 and North Carolina visits on Oct. 26. Four out of the five ACC field hockey squads were 2001 NCAA tournament participants and finished among the top 10 in the NFHCA poll.

In all, nine of Maryland's 2002 regular season matches will be played against teams that finished in last season's NFHCA Top 20. Eight of those contests are against participants of the 2001 NCAA championship tournament, including two of the three other national semifinalist teams.

"We always try to schedule the best teams in the nation," said Meharg. "We play 13 home games, and we have the opportunity to play the national team. The schedule is great for the development of this new club."



Kerry Hearsey

Head Coach Missy Meharg

2001 ACC & NFHCA National Coach of the Year

Head Coach
Delaware '85
15th Year at Maryland

Missy Meharg could be thought of as a coach who has guided the Maryland field hockey program to two NCAA titles and six national semifinal appearances. She might be referred to as a leader who has won five Atlantic Coast Conference championships, directing the Terrapins to four straight titles from 1998-2001. She could be recognized as a motivator that has been named the National Field Hockey Coaches Association (NFHCA) National Coach of the Year four times, most recently in 2001. She might also be known as a mentor whose student-athletes have garnered 57 All-America citations on the field and 131 ACC academic honor roll awards outside the lines. Further, she could be seen as an instructor that has developed 35 players who have competed internationally or that four of her former players are currently playing at the highest level with the U.S. National Field Hockey team.

Though Meharg's numbers are extraordinary, Maryland's leader, now in her 15th season, is much more. As gifted an educator as she is a coach, Meharg recognizes the ability of athletic competition to teach life lessons. The mentor emphasizes the characteristics of sports that can be used as a vehicle to develop successful lifelong qualities.

"Empowering student-athletes to develop character traits that transcend athletic performance can shape the manner in which the athletes approach everyday life experiences," says Meharg. "A successful life ... lends the opportunity to be a national champion. Keeping hockey fun keeps live more enjoyable."

Meharg has played an integral role in all three of Maryland's national championships. She was the head coach for the last two titles (1993 and 1999) and was an assistant coach during the Terps' first run to the national title (1987).

Accolades have come for Meharg in the form of four NFHCA Coach of the Year awards (1991, 1993, 1999, 2001), four ACC Coach of the Year honors (1992, 1995, 1998, 2001) and seven Mid-Atlantic Regional Coach of the Year citations. She enters the 2002 season 13th on the NCAA Division I all-time coaching victories list with 227 wins in her 14 seasons. Last year, while claiming their fourth-consecutive ACC title and making a run to the national championship game, Meharg's Terrapins reached a milestone by posting only the third 20-win season in Maryland's treasured history on the turf.

During her tenure at Maryland, Meharg has coached 35 players who have competed on the international level, including 11 that have represented the United States on the senior national team. In 1996, Meharg served as an assistant coach as former Terp All-American Kate Kauffman and the U.S. squad competed in the Olympic Games in Atlanta.

The Terps have been represented in the Olympics, the Pan American games, the World Cup, the Olympic Qualifying tournament and a host of other international competitions. This past year, former Terp All-Americans Kate Kauffman, Carla Tagliente and Keli Smith helped the U.S. secure a World Cup berth by edging india in a three-game series in Cannock, England, in June. The squad will be joined by recent grad Dina Rizzo when it makes its World Cup appearance in November in Perth, Australia. In addition, current Terp Emily Boyer and incoming freshman Lauren Powley competed with the U.S. Under-19 team at the Cal Cup in Moorpark, Calif., this past May.

Meharg's collegiate playing career was nearly as successful as her coaching career is now. She was an All-America forward at the University of Delaware, where she also played lacrosse, from 1981-84. Meharg was a Honda Award nominee in field hockey in 1983, the same year she was named MVP of the East Coast Conference after leading her team in goals, assists and points. The Blue Hen hockey team reached the NCAA championship semifinal round when she was a sophomore in 1982, and Meharg's lacrosse squad won the national championship the following spring.

Meharg enjoyed an impressive seven-year playing career with the U.S. National Team from 1985-91. During that time, she was a member of the 1986 World Cup team and an alternate to the 1987 Pan American and 1988 Olympic teams. She capped her playing career as a member of the 1991 Pan American team and the 1991 U.S. squad that unfortunately missed qualifying for the 1992 Olympics in Barcelona.

Meharg is an accomplished and experienced coach on the international stage. She was a member of the U.S. National Team's coaching staff from 1993-1997, which included her appearance in the 1996 Olympics, the 1994 World Cup in Dublin, Ireland, and the 1995 Pan American Games in Argentina. In 1994 and 1995 she served as the coach for the U.S. Under-21 team.

During her career, Meharg has taught in the U.S. Field Hockey Association Coaching Certification Program. She has completed two different FIH coaching courses, entitled "Olympic Solidarity" and "Preliminary Coaching." She has recently been invited to present at the High Performance Coaching Workshop in conjuction with the World Cup in Perth, Australia in November.

Meharg earned a bachelor's degree in health and physical education from Delaware in 1985 and her master's degree in sports psychology from Maryland in 1990. She is the mother of two sons: 11-year old Andre who attends the Norwood School in Bethesda, Md., and 10-year old Genya who goes to Dufief School in North Potomac.

Did You Know?

• Since the NFHCA began recognizing the National Coach of the Year in 1990, Missy Meharg's four awards (1991, 1993, 1999, 2001) are the most for any coach at the college level.

Welsh Wins Honda Award

Last season, defensive back Autumn Welsh became the first athlete under Missy Meharg to be recognized as the national player of the year. Welsh was named the recipient of the 2001 Honda Award, marking the first time in Maryland field hockey history that an athlete has attained the honor. Meharg was a Honda nominee herself at the University of Delaware in 1983.

Steve Simpson

Steve Simpson begins his eighth season as a Terrapin assistant coach and his second managing the field hockey team's internal operations. The 1988 Maryland graduate continues to handle the Terps' travel and budget issues, in addition to his tasks involving video analysis, talent evaluation and tutoring the goalkeepers.

"Steve brings so much to the program," said head coach Missy Meharg. "First and foremost is his coaching. He has an incredible background in video analysis. It is an honor to have him here – this program would not be where it is without Steve Simpson."

Simpson's contributions to Maryland's program are apparent. The Terrapins have played in a school-record seven consecutive NCAA Tournaments since his arrival, in addition to the 1999 national championship and four straight ACC titles during his seven-year association with Maryland hockey.

Simpson came to the University of Maryland as an undergraduate in 1977 after attending school in England for seven years. Simpson boasts extensive international playing, coaching and officiating experience in the sport of field hockey.

Simpson played on the U.S. Under-21 team from 1977-80 and was an alternate to the U.S. National Team in 1981. He competed in four Olympic Festivals (1979, 1981, 1982 and 1983).

In addition to his ongoing experience at Maryland, Simpson has an impressive coaching resume. Simpson was an assistant coach for the U.S. Women's National Team at the 1997 Champions Trophy in Berlin, Germany, and the 1998 World Cup in the Netherlands. The U.S. earned an eighth-place finish at the World Cup tournament. In addition, he was an assistant coach on the 1997 U.S. U-21 men's team.

Simpson has been a coach in the United States Field Hockey Association (USFHA) Futures program since its inception in 1991. He has coached the Under-19 Chesapeake Futures team to the national tournament several times. Simpson led the Under-19 Futures Elite Team to Sydney, Australia in August of 2002.

Simpson has also served as the Coaching and Administrative Director for the Chesapeake Region of the Futures program. He has been an instructor for the USFHA Level One and Two coaching certification programs and has presented topics at the annual NFHCA convention. He has also authored articles that have appeared in the NFHCA newsletter.

In 1985, Simpson became a Federation Internationale de Hockey (FIH) Umpire. He was appointed to umpire the 2001 men's World Cup Qualifying Tournament in Edinburgh, Scotland. Simpson was the first person in North or South America to receive a FIH Indoor Umpire rating and was promoted to the Grade 1 level in June, 2000.

He has served as the head coach of the Washington Wolves Hockey Club since 1990.

Andrew Griffiths

After serving as a volunteer assistant in 1998 and as a team consultant from 1999 to 2000, Andrew Griffiths returns to the Terrapin sidelines in his second full-time season in 2002. The international mentor and former Olympian supervises external operations for the field hockey program, including marketing, media and facility management, while focusing his coaching on the Terps' offense and attack penalty corners.

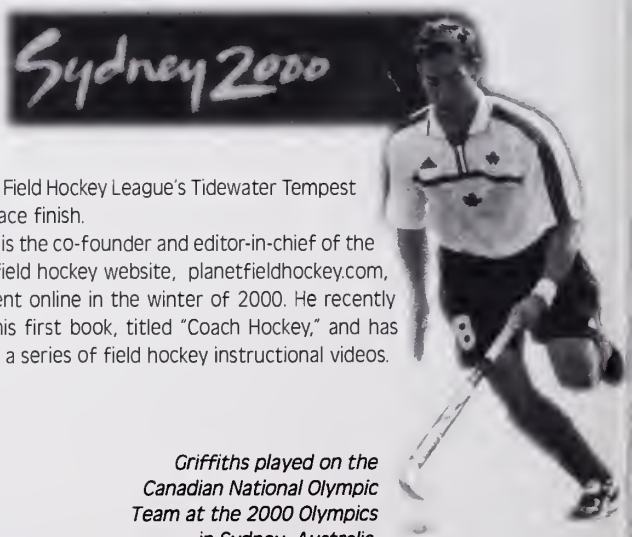
"Andrew's knowledge of hockey comes from a combination of international experiences," stated head coach Missy Meharg."He's competed in the Olympics for Canada and in many World Cups. He's played from the sweeper position all the way up through the forward line and is certainly a set piece master so he'll be able to help tremendously on attack penalty corners."

A 1995 graduate of Western Ontario University, Griffiths' coaching resume includes a stint at the helm of his alma mater from 1990-93. He helped guide the Mustangs to their first-ever Canadian top 10 ranking during his final season.

Griffiths has been a member of the Canadian National Field Hockey Team since 1989. He helped his squad to a tenth-place finish at the 2000 Olympics in Sydney, Australia, and played in the 1990 and 1998 World Cups as well. Griffiths served as the squad's captain from 1992-94, and made appearances at the Pan American Games in 1991, 1995 and 1999.

The coach earned an English degree from Western Ontario in 1995, before obtaining his graduate degree in journalism in 1998 from Toronto's Ryerson Polytechnic Institute.

Griffiths has risen to a new level of involvement in U.S. hockey since becoming a full-time part of Meharg's coaching staff. He attended the 2001 National Hockey Festival in Palm Beach County, Fla., last December, attended the National Field Hockey Coaches Association (NFHCA) convention in Philadelphia in January of 2002 and served as a coaching clinician at the NFHCA annual clinic at Yale University this past spring. This past summer he also teamed with Old Dominion head coach Beth Anders to coach the United Airlines Field Hockey League's Tidewater Tempest to a fourth-place finish.



Griffiths is the co-founder and editor-in-chief of the international field hockey website, planetfieldhockey.com, which first went online in the winter of 2000. He recently co-authored his first book, titled "Coach Hockey," and has also produced a series of field hockey instructional videos.

Griffiths played on the Canadian National Olympic Team at the 2000 Olympics in Sydney, Australia.

Carla Tagliente

One of only two four-time All-Americans in Terrapin field hockey history, Maryland's all-time leading goals and point scorer Carla Tagliente brings her impressive collegiate and international playing career to the field hockey sideline. Tagliente, who has been a member of the U.S. National Field Hockey Team since 1997, will assist the Terps during practice sessions and game situations while continuing her residency program with the U.S. in preparation for the 2002 FIH World Cup.

Tagliente was the complete student-athlete during her four-year career with the Terrapins. She closed out her college tenure as a finalist for the Honda Award and a three-time Verizon/GTE CoSIDA Academic All-American. She started every game of her collegiate career, finishing with a school-record 73 goals and 187 points. Tagliente was named to the All-Region and All-ACC squads four times and was voted ACC Rookie of the Year in 1997.

Tagliente's involvement with the U.S. Field Hockey Team dates back to 1997. She was a member of the qualifying team for the 2000 Sydney Olympics, and played with the senior national team in the 2001 Korea Telecom Cup and Americas Cup as well. And finally, after the tragic events of Sept. 11, 2001, delayed the U.S. National Team's World Cup qualifier, Tagliente and her American teammates edged India in a three-game series in June. Tagliente, as well as fellow Maryland alums Katie Kauffman ('96), Keli Smith ('01) and Dina Rizzo ('02) will join the Stars & Stripes at the World Cup in Perth, Australia, from Nov.28-Dec. 8, 2002.

After serving as a student-assistant coach under Meharg last season, Tagliente graduated summa cum laude with a degree in marketing and finance in December of 2001. She delivered the commencement address for the Robert H. Smith School of Business, and was one of three Terrapins awarded with the Atlantic Coast Conference's prestigious Weaver-James-Corrigan Postgraduate Scholarship.

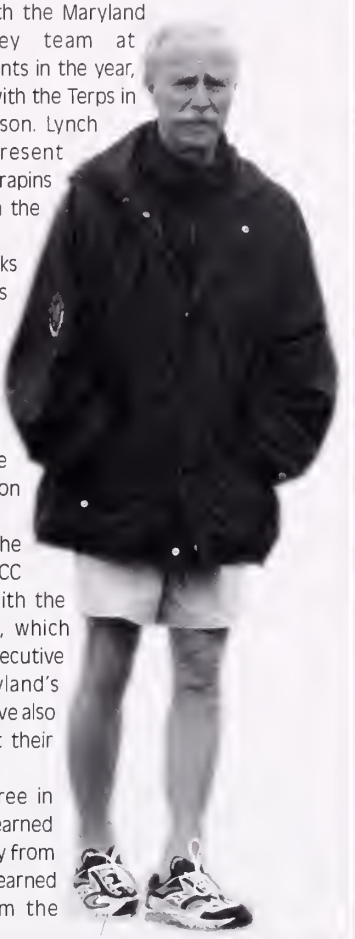
Dr. Jerry Lynch is in his fifth season assisting in the psychological and mental development of the Maryland field hockey program. The prominent sports psychologist has over 27 years of experience and has worked with clients in the PGA, NFL and NBA, as well as numerous collegiate teams. He has also served as an advisor for several international organizations, from the Swiss skydiving squad to the Filipino Olympic committee.

Lynch runs the Tao Sports Center for Excellence, a sports psychology firm based in Santa, Cruz, Calif. He visits with the Maryland field hockey team at different points in the year, and travels with the Terps in the postseason. Lynch has been present with the Terrapins at each national semifinal appearance in the last three years.



The mentor has authored eight books and has published over 75 articles. Lynch's latest book, "Creative Coaching," was published in 2001 and features Maryland head coaches Missy Meharg and Cindy Timchal. Lynch is also a renowned speaker and motivator on the national level, and he delivered the keynote address at the National Field Hockey Coaches Association Conference in Philadelphia last January.

In 1999, Lynch's expertise aided the Terps' in their quest of the NCAA and ACC championships. He also works closely with the Maryland women's lacrosse program, which captured an unprecedented seven consecutive national titles from 1995-2001. Maryland's women's basketball and volleyball teams have also used Lynch as a consultant throughout their seasons.

After earning his bachelor's degree in English from St. Francis College, Lynch earned his master's degree and Ph.D. in psychology from Penn State University. In addition, he has earned a Ph.D. in comparative religions from the American College of Theology.

Autumn Welsh

The first-ever Honda Award recipient in the history of the Maryland field hockey program and the anchor of the vaunted Terrapin defense for the past four seasons, Autumn Welsh makes the transition from player to coach as a student-assistant for the 2002 season. The two-time All-American, two-time ACC Tournament MVP and 2001 ACC Co-Player of the Year will join the Terps on the sidelines while student-teaching as part of her last semester at the university.

Welsh was a first team STX/NFHCA All-American in 2001, after being named to the second team in 2000. After captaining the top-rated defense in the nation in 2001 and keying the Terps to the national title game, Welsh added the Honda national player of the year honor to a resume that included four Mid-Atlantic All-Region selections, a 2001 ACC Co-Player of the Year citation, two ACC Tournament MVP accolades, three All-ACC awards, two ACC Player of the Week nods and the 1998 ACC Rookie of the Year honor.

Welsh began international field hockey play in the Olympic Development Program from the age of 15. In the spring of 2001 she was a member of the U.S. National Team that captured the silver medal at the Americas Cup. The two-time NFHCA Academic squad member and 2002 Verizon Academic District II selection will graduate with a double-degree in math/secondary education.

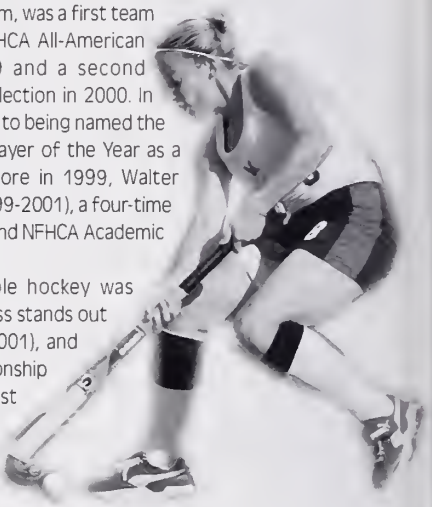
Caroline Walter

One of the most prolific offensive players in Atlantic Coast Conference field hockey history, two-time All-American Caroline Walter makes her way to the sidelines in 2002. The native of Reilingen, Germany, finished her four-year career with 158 points – a total that ranks her third all-time at Maryland and in the top 10 all-time in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Walter, who was as dynamic a scorer on the field as she is a student in the classroom, was a first team STX/NFHCA All-American in 1999 and a second team selection in 2000. In addition to being named the ACC's Player of the Year as a sophomore in 1999, Walter was a three-time All-ACC selection (1999-2001), a four-time ACC Honor Roll member (1998-2001) and NFHCA Academic Squad honoree (1998-2001).



Perhaps Walter's most notable hockey was played in the postseason. Walter's class stands out as four-year ACC champions (1998-2001), and in addition to being on a NCAA championship team in 1999 and a national semifinalist squad from 1999-2001, Walter was selected to the ACC All-Tournament team four times, and the NCAA All-Tournament Team twice (2000-01).

Walter will graduate with a degree in marketing in December.

Ashley Hohnstine

One the top netminders in the nation and a stalwart in the Maryland cage for each of the past three seasons, Ashley Hohnstine brings her highly successful playing experience to the Maryland staff in 2002. The ACC's top savior in each of the past two years will assist the team's marketing and media efforts while completing her degree in kinesiology.

Hohnstine, who transferred to Maryland for the 1999 season as a sophomore, quickly worked her way into the mix and split time with Terp incumbent keeper Zoe Ehrlich. The duo combined for a school-record 24 victories and helped the Terps capture the NCAA and ACC championships. Hohnstine, who led the nation with a 0.66 goals against average, was the recipient of NFHCA all-region honors that year. Maryland's all-time leader in GAA with a 0.91 average for her career, Hohnstine posted averages of 0.93 and 0.88 in 2000 and 2001 to lead the Atlantic Coast Conference and help the Terps to three straight ACC titles during her time between the pipes.

Hohnstine's international experience includes an invitation to the U.S. Under-21 squad in 2000 and a stint in the summer of 2001 training with the Australian National Team Hockeyroos at the Victorian Institute of Sport in Melbourne.

Messimer Up Close

Favorite place to hang out: The Jungle Grille.
Since coming to Maryland I've learned: that you are capable of anything if you believe in it and work at it.
I came to Maryland because: I love the team! Everyone is accepted and treated as equals — they are my second family!
What do you want to accomplish this season? I want to push everyone to their fullest physical potential at every practice so that we can advance fully as a team.
Favorite quote: "Destiny is not a matter of chance, it is a matter of choice."

2001 Season Review

Terps Win Fourth Straight ACC Title, Reach NCAA Final

Terps Reach NCAA Title Game For the Second Time In Three Years

With a veteran squad reloaded for success, the 2001 Maryland field hockey team claimed its fourth straight ACC title, made its third straight NCAA semifinals appearance and posted only the third 20-win season in program history. Finishing with a record of 20-4, the Terrapins cruised through NCAA first and second round match-ups with Fairfield and Syracuse, battled with Wake Forest for a double-overtime victory in the national semifinal and concluded their run in the fina game against Michigan.

The Terrapins have now appeared in seven straight NCAA tournaments and have made 14 appearances overall. Maryland's national finals showing was the fifth in program history, and the appearance in the semifinals was the school's seventh. Colleen Barbieri, Dina Rizzo, Caroline Walter and Autumn Welsh were Maryland's NCAA all-tournament team selections.

The Terps after winning the 2001 ACC title.

Maryland Captures Fourth Straight ACC Title

The 2001 Terrapins claimed their fourth straight ACC Tournament Championship and fifth overall by edging Wake Forest, 3-2, in the title game after downing Virginia, 4-1, in the semifinal. Maryland, who earned the top seed in the tournament with a 3-1 regular season conference record, now owns ACC titles from 1992, 1998, 1999, 2000 and 2001.

Terp defensive back Autumn Welsh earned her second ACC Championship most valuable player honor, while Caroline Walter and Carissa Messimer were named to the all-tournament team as well.

Meharg Earns National, ACC Coach of the Year Honors

After guiding Maryland to the national title game, its third consecutive national semifinal appearance, and its fourth straight ACC title, Maryland head coach Missy Meharg reaped conference, local and national accolades. The Terp mentor, who completed her 14th season in 2001, was named the NFHCA National Coach of the Year and the ACC Coach of the Year for the fourth time each in her career.

In addition, Meharg, who was inducted into the University of Delaware's Sports Hall of Fame in 1998, was selected for induction into the State of Delaware's Sports Hall of Fame this past May.

Welsh Honored With Honda Award

The backbone of the top-ranked Terrapin defense in 2001, Autumn Welsh was named as the sport of field hockey's Honda Award winner, recognizing her as the nation's top collegiate player.

The award was the first for a Maryland field hockey player in the 25 years of the Honda Awards program and the first national player of the year honor in the 28 years that Maryland field hockey has been under the auspices of the intercollegiate athletics department. Welsh joins Terp lacrosse standout Jen Adams as the only two Maryland athletes to ever be honored with the national distinction.

A Team Of Many Weapons

With an intercepting defense, solid goalkeeping, an aggressive transition game and an incredibly balanced attack, the Maryland Terrapins boasted both the nation's top scoring offense (4.16 GPG) and defense (0.88 GAA) in 2001. The Maryland offense, led by Colleen Barbieri, Dina Rizzo and Carissa Messimer boasted 14 goal scorers in 2001, including nine Terps who tallied at least five goals and eight Terps credited with game-winning scores.

The Terp defense, composed of Autumn Welsh, Kateri Simon, Kristin Harris and Sara Silvetti limited opponents to only 5.6 shots per game and combined with the goalkeeping unit to boast 11 shutouts.

Terp netminder Ashley Hohnstine led the conference and the nation in goals against average (.877) for the second time in her career, while newcomer Kerry Hearsey forged an impressive 0.90 GAA while spelling her senior counterpart.

Topping The Charts Again

After riding a nine-game win streak into the national championship game, the Maryland Terrapins finished the 2001 season ranked No. 1 in the STX/NFHCA Coaches Poll. The final poll was released on Nov. 6, prior to the start of NCAA tournament play.

Maryland totaled seven victories over teams in the 2001 coaches top 10 and posted a 13-3 record against the top 20. The Terps were voted the No. 1 team in the nation in six out of the eight polls conducted in 2001.

Maryland has been ranked in the top 5 in every NFHCA Poll in each of the last three seasons.

Terrapins Garner Four All-America, Seven Mid-Atlantic Region Honors

The Maryland field hockey squad placed a national-leading four student-athletes on 2001 STX/NFHCA All-America teams. Seniors Autumn Welsh and Dina Rizzo were both named to the first team for the first time in their careers, while Rachel Hiskins and Carissa Messimer were selected to the second team.

Prior to the announcement of the national All-Americans, seven Terrapins were also named to 2001 Mid-Atlantic All-Region teams. Welsh, Rizzo, Hiskins, Messimer and senior Caroline Walter were honored as first team selections, while freshman Colleen Barbieri and junior Kateri Simon were named to the second team.

Rizzo and Messimer's national honors make them the 29th and 30th Terps in history to be tabbed "All-American." In all, the Terrapins have received 57 All-America accolades since 1974.

Dina Rizzo (fourth from left) was honored as a member of the 2001 NFHCA All-America first team.

Record Ten Terrapins Named To 2001 NFHCA Academic Squad

A record-setting total of ten Maryland field hockey players were selected to the 2001 NFHCA Academic Squad, having attained a 3.3 minimum cumulative grade point average and meeting the additional criteria of either being a "starter" or "key reserve." The ten student-athletes marks the Terps' highest total ever and trailed only Bucknell (12) and Stanford (12) for the most NCAA Division I honorees in the nation.

Three-time honorees included seniors Carol Senkler, Caroline Walter, All-American and Honda Award winner Autumn Welsh and Angie Klingerman.

All-American Carissa Messimer earned academic squad honors for the second time in her career after a stellar junior campaign.

Newcomers Kristen Harris, Kerry Hearsey, Lucy Morris, redshirt freshman Courtney Thornton and senior Ashley Hohnstine were all named to the squad for the first time in their respective careers.

The ten selections to the squad best Maryland's previous record total of nine, set in 2000.

2001 Game Recaps

Aug. 25

STANFORD, Calif. – Six different Terrapins found the back of the net as the Maryland field hockey squad overpowered California, 8-0, to begin its 2001 season.–Angie Klingerman and Colleen Barbieri chipped in two goals each as part of an overall team effort that saw every Terp log playing time.

Carissa Messimer put the Terps on the scoreboard at 29:30 in the first half, punching in a rebounded rocket from Caroline Walter. Lucy Morris got in on the act next, firing a flurry of shots at Cal keeper Emily Rowlen at 18:14 to score. Later in the half, a Morris shot was rebounded and scored by Klingerman for her first goal, and Messimer found Barbieri on a fast break to close out the period.

Maryland kept up the intensity in the second stanza, matching its first half scoring total. Dina Rizzo ripped a saved corner opportunity past the outstretched keeper. Rachel Hiskins found Megan Kelly for the next score, Barbieri struck again on a loose ball of the stick of Hiskins at 17:30, and Beth Hafer skipped a pass across the front of the goal to Klingerman for the final.

STANFORD, Calif. – It was a freshman coming out party in the Maryland field hockey team's second game as the Terps downed Pacific, 8-0. Lucy Morris netted two goals and added two assists and Colleen Barbieri scored twice for the second game in a row as part of the freshman-led offensive barrage. Sara Silvetti and Beth Hafer tallied their first collegiate goals as the Class of 2004 combined for 15 total points. Rookie goalkeeper Kerry Hearsey made two saves as the Terp defense posted its second shutout in as many games.

The Terps controlled both ends of the field, outshooting the Tigers by a 38-3 margin. A well-executed penalty corner put the Terrapins on the scoreboard after a pushout from Morris, a stick stop by Autumn Welsh and the shot by Silvetti. Morris increased the Maryland lead with a slapshot, and Barbieri put the Terps up by three with her first goal of the day. Welsh was next, collecting a loose ball and flicking it into the cage. Morris concluded the first half of scoring with her second goal.

Angie Klingerman slammed an upfield pass from Rachel Hiskins into the cage to make it 5-0 in the second period. Later in the half, Klingerman delivered a sharp pass along the endline to Hafer for a goal.

Game 3
Aug. 28

STANFORD, Calif. --Dina Rizzo broke open a second-half scoreless stalemate and the Terp defense posted its third shutout in as many games as the Maryland field hockey squad blanked Stanford, 3-0.

Ashley Hohnstine picked up her second solo shutout and Autumn Welsh and the backfield held Stanford to two shots.

The match was scoreless after a hotly contested first half, as the Terrapins outshot the Cardinal 12-1 but could not find the back of the net. The competition was intense, as evidenced by a pair of green cards issued to Maryland and a yellow assessed to Stanford.

Rizzo lifted the ball over outstretched Cardinal keeper Emily Shapiro midway through the second half to open the scoring. Lucy Morris then increased the lead by finishing a deflected Carissa Messimer tip attempt after Rizzo slid the ball down low on a corner opportunity. Sara Silvetti closed out the scoring on a direct corner hit from Morris and Welsh.

NORFOLK, Va --Dina Rizzo rocketed in a goal as part of a late second-half rally, but it was not enough as the Maryland field hockey squad suffered its first loss of the season at Old Dominion, 2-1. The Terrapins outshot the non-conference nemesis Monarchs by a 16-9 margin but could not capitalize on several opportunities.

Rizzo's goal came on a pass from Colleen Barbieri. After a penalty corner attempt by Rachel Hiskins was deflected by ODU keeper Marybeth Freeman, Barbieri centered the rebound to Rizzo who put the trailing Terrapins back into the game with just over two minutes left.

After a scoreless first half, the Monarchs broke the tie in the second stanza when Julie Miracle slapped in a rebounded corner stroke. ODU's Tiffany Snow's shot was

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Maryland enjoyed a sweet homecoming, hitting on all cylinders to shut out Northwestern, 4-0, in the opening game of the 2001 Terrapin Invitational.–Dina Rizzo and Caroline Walter led the Terrapin attack with two goals apiece, while the goalie tandem of Ashley Hohnstine and Kerry Hearsey shut out the Wildcat offense.

Rizzo opened up the scoring, rocketing a Rachel Hiskins rebound into the cage. Walter capitalized off her own rebound later to help the Terps jump out to a 2-0 advantage. Rizzo lit up the scoreboard a second time, collecting a penalty corner rebound and slapping into the upper-righthand corner of the goal, giving Maryland a three-score cushion at halftime. Walter added her second goal late in the second half to cap the Maryland scoring.

Hohnstine and Hearsey split time in goal with the senior starter making two saves in the first half, while Hearsey stopped one shot in her third career appearance.

KENT STATE

COLLEGE PARK, Md.'– The Maryland field hockey squad put together a complete team effort, downing Kent State 5-0 to claim the Terps' fifth Terrapin Invitational title in the five-year history of the event. Five different Terps found the back of the net on the offensive end, while Autumn Welsh and the Terp backfield allowed the Golden Flashes zero shots.

The Terp defense helped senior goalkeeper Ashley Hohnstine to her fourth shutout of the season. Freshman Kerry Hearsey took over midway through the second half as part of a defensive effort that last limited an opponent to zero shots in Maryland's 8-0 win at Delaware on Sept. 9 of last season.

The Terrapins scored early and often in the opening period, first cracking the scoreboard when Rachel Hiskins rebounded a penalty corner attempt by Megan Kelly and punched it home. Maryland's offense began to heat up toward the end of the first half, scoring three times in the final ten minutes.

The Terps worked many players into the game in the second stanza and continued to control the match's tempo. Sophomore Dawn Christensen fired a flurry of shots that was too much for the Kent backup goalie Jessica Creeden. Christensen's score in her first game action of 2001 made the final 5-0.

COLUMBUS, Ohio – The Maryland field hockey team defeated Michigan State, 4-1 at the Ohio State University. Both teams observed a moment of silence before the game began in the wake of the national tragedy on Sept. 11. The Terps wore patriotic ribbons and black armbands as well.

Maryland jumped out to an early lead, when Carissa Messimer netted the only goal of the first half off an assist from Autumn Welsh.

The Terps came alive in the second half, scoring three goals in less than 12 minutes. Angie Klingerman and Colleen Barbieri each netted a goal for the Terps before Dina Rizzo rounded out the offensive attack at the 10:03 mark, scoring off an assist from Welsh. In the net, Ashley Hohnstine recorded five saves as Maryland outshot Michigan State, 15-8.

The Demon Deacons were first on the scoreboard when Lucy Shaw slapped in a direct penalty corner shot from Heather Aughinbaugh and Lynne Shenk. The Deacons kept the lead for nearly ten minutes before a Terrapin answer, which came when Carissa Messimer punched in a long endline cross from Dina Rizzo to tie the contest before the end of the first half.

The Terrapins roared to life in the second period, using tremendous ball movement to create several scoring opportunities. Rachel Hiskins set up Kelly's game-winner with a cross from the right side of the cage with 26:53 remaining. Barbieri struck twice before the period was over.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – The Maryland field hockey squad put together another "red hot" performance to beat the cold weather and their third straight top 10 opponent. Megan Kelly notched her second game-winning goal in as many contests as the Terps dispatched the previously unbeaten Princeton Tigers, 3-1, at a chilly Artificial Turf Facility.

The Terp defense, led by Autumn Welsh and goalkeeper Ashley Hohnstine, was brilliant, limiting Princeton's nationally top-ranked scoring offense to only six shots and the country's leading scorer, Ilvy Friebe, to only a late second-half goal. Maryland's high-octane offense, meanwhile, got off to an early start and never looked back.

Carissa Messimer helped the Terps to a 15-2 first half shot advantage and gave Maryland a 1-0 lead. Colleen Barbieri rebounded her own shot and slid it to Messimer, who punched it in for the score. Ten minutes later Rachel Hiskins picked up one of her two assists, finding Kelly in front of the cage for what proved to be the game-winner.

The Terrapins controlled the tempo for much of the second half as well, and tallied their third goal of the day when Barbieri beat Kelly Baril with a rifle into the cage.

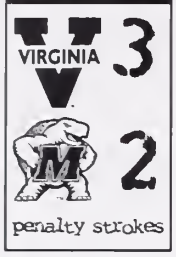
Game 10
Sept. 30



COLLEGE PARK, Md.'- The Maryland field hockey team overcame a sluggish start to come back against Virginia, as the Cavaliers prevailed, 3-2, after two overtimes and a round of penalty strokes. Down 2-0 at halftime, the No. 1 Terps rallied to knot the contest and send it into extra sessions, but could not capitalize on several opportunities to put Virginia away.

The Cavaliers netted 3-of-5 strokes to edge the Terps, who made 2-of-5 and came away with the first loss in strokes in the 27-year history of the program.

After Jessica Coleman put the Cavs on the scoreboard, Katie Slocum increased the Virginia lead to 2-0. Maryland picked it up in the second half, when Rachel Hiskins banged in a penalty stroke and a Sara Silvetti pass found rookie Lucy Morris to tie the game with just over two minutes remaining.

After two Terrapin-dominated seven-aside overtime periods, the match went to strokes. Virginia's Katie Jo Gerfen, Carrie Goodloe and Emily Beach were successful to hand the Terrapins the upset.

COLLEGE PARK, Md.-Sara Silvetti tied the game as the second half expired and Dina Rizzo banged in an overtime game-winner to cap her first career hat trick as the Maryland field hockey squad erased a 4-0 deficit to come back against Duke.

The Terrapins gave up four unanswered first-half goals, with two coming off the stick of Liz Bateman, in the first twenty minutes of the match. After Rizzo got the Terps on the scoreboard, Angie Klingerman netted a goal with six seconds remaining in the first half to cut the Duke lead to two.

Maryland roared out of the halftime huddle, tying the game by the 20 minute mark on goals by Rachel Hiskins and Rizzo. The Terps outshot the Blue Devils 19-1 in the second period but couldn't hold off Bateman, who gave Duke a 5-4 lead with 13:09 to play.

The Terrapins tried valiantly to make another run, and after earning a penalty corner with time winding down, Silvetti collected her own rebound and hammered it in to send the contest to overtime.

Rizzo completed her hat trick and the Terps' comeback 40 seconds into the extra session on a running backhand.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Sophomore Dawn Christensen notched three straight scores as part of an eight-goal second-half Terrapin outburst as Maryland overwhelmed unranked Rutgers, 10-0. Christensen' career-high three scores came within a span of 2 minutes, 31 seconds on a day where the Maryland offense recorded its largest victory since a 13-1 win over Georgetown on Sept. 18, 1999.

Colleen Barbieri made the most of her first collegiate start, putting the Terps on the scoreboard after a pass from Rachel Hiskins. Autumn Welsh and Caroline Walter connected for a goal before Welsh fed Barbieri for her second score of the day in the second half.

Lucy Morris got in on the act next, rifling in a pair of unassisted goals before Christensen went on her flurry. Emily Boyer registered her first career goal from Welsh and Morris on a straight penalty corner hit, and Catherine Rogers notched her first tally of the season to make it 10-0 at 3:50.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Nine different Terrapins registered points, highlighted by Carissa Messimer's two goals and Autumn Welsh's single tally and two assists as Maryland downed Virginia Commonwealth for its second shutout in as many games, 7-0.

Caroline Walter put the Terps on the scoreboard with a backhanded wrister, and after Messimer was fouled in the circle, Welsh gave the Terps a 2-0 lead with a penalty stroke.

The Terrapins came out of the halftime huddle firing, and increased their advantage when Angie Klingerman tipped in a long upfield pass from Walter. Two minutes later Rachel Hiskins found Messimer for her first score of the day on a one-timer. Messimer's second goal was another tip-in, this time from senior Dina Rizzo.

Sara Silvetti rifled in a corner opportunity after a Welsh stick stop and a pushout by Carol Senkler. Senkler and Welsh fed Emily Boyer to close out the scoring.

Ashley Hohnstine and Kerry Hearsey spent a majority of the day between the pipes for the Terps, but the Maryland defense kept the Rams at bay for a 33-1 shot advantage. VCU's lone shot in the second half was stopped by Boyer, who closed out the match as a kicking back.

The veteran goalkeepers for the Monarchs and Terrapins were both solid. Old Dominion's Marybeth Freeman made three saves while Maryland's Ashley Hohnstine stopped four.

The deadlock was broken during seven-aside play with Loy's goal. After the Terps were called for a foul inside the circle, junior Tiffany Snow flipped the ball to Loy on the right side of the cage, who buried the shot in the left side of the net.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. – After controlling the match for over 76 minutes and still seeking a decisive score, the Maryland field hockey squad finally found what it was looking for. The Terrapins stepped up with a goal six minutes, twenty-six seconds in the first overtime period to down North Carolina, 1-0.

Rachel Hiskins found Carissa Messimer along the endline for the game-winner with 7:34 to play in the first overtime session. After a Terrapin penalty corner was stopped by Carolina keeper Amy Tran, Autumn Welsh collected the loose ball and dumped it to Hiskins, who slid it to Messimer for the tally.

Maryland kept the ball on the North Carolina end for much of the opening period, garnering a 7-2 shot advantage. Maryland's best chance to score came when Colleen Barbieri received the ball on a fast break, and rifled it just wide of the cage and a sprawling Tran.

Terp goalkeeper Ashley Hohnstine made four saves in the Terps' brilliant defensive performance. Tran was spectacular with 11 stops as Maryland's shot advantage totaled 21-6 for the game.

Game 16
Oct. 24
Maryland 4
Delaware 1

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – The Maryland field hockey squad outshot Delaware 21-4 to sink the Blue Hens, 4-1. Colleen Barbieri netted a pair of goals, including the second-half game-winner, in her first major playing minutes since recovering from a high ankle sprain.

Dina Rizzo got the offense moving in the first half for the Terrapins. After a penalty corner rocket by Caroline Walter was deflected by Blue Hen goalie Heidi Hibshman, the midfielder lunged forward for the tip-in just under the crossbar.

Barbieri wasted no time in the second half, scoring less than five minutes into the action. The rookie sniper took advantage of a pass that skittered off the pads of Delaware's second-half keeper Stephanie Judefind, flicking it into the right side of the net. Five minutes later Barbieri received an upfield pass from Rachel Hiskins, darted past the Blue Hen sweeper, and punched it into right corner of the goalmouth.

Rookie goalie Kerry Hearsey stopped one second-half shot before the Blue Hens tallied their lone score of the game. Delaware leading scorer Juli Byrd fired in a penalty corner attempt after a stick stop by Jenn Fotiou and a pushout by Kelly Coyle.

The Terps answered with just over two minutes to play, when Megan Kelly one-timed a well executed cross-crease pass by Emily Boyer.

Game 17
Oct. 26
JMU 0

HARRISONBURG, Va. -- Colleen Barbieri scored the game-winner in the first half and the Terps never looked back in defeating James Madison, 5-0. Senior goalkeeper Ashley Hohnstine and the Terrapin defense battled the Dukes and chilly conditions to post their ninth season shutout and second over a NFHCA top 20 team in three games.

Senior midfielder Dina Rizzo's total of three assists was a career high. She swept a pass along the endline in the opening period, where Barbieri collected it and poked it past JMU keeper Kiernan Raffo. The Terrapins outshot the Dukes 10-1 in the first half.

It was Rizzo's turn only a few minutes into the second half. After Raffo deflected a pass into the circle, Rizzo lunged forward to sweep the loose ball into the corner of the cage. The Terrapins made it 3-0 later in the half when Caroline Walter rocketed in a penalty corner after a pushout from Carissa Messimer and a stick stop by Autumn Welsh.

Lucy Morris, who missed the previous four games with an injury to her lower back, capped the victory with two second-half scores, both from Rizzo. The rookie took a long upfield pass on a fast break and put it away to make it 4-0, and tipped in a Rizzo pass at 3:54 for the final.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. --Carissa Messimer and Lucy Morris tallied two goals apiece and Colleen Barbieri registered a pair of assists as the Terrapins topped Drexel, 6-0 on Senior Day.

The Terrapins outshot the Dragons 42-0 and Autumn Welsh and goalkeepers Ashley Hohnstine and Kerry Hearsey directed the Terp defense to its 10th shutout of the year. Additionally, the Terrapins did not allow one penalty corner.

Messimer scored the game-winner with just over 14 minutes to play in the first half. Her goal was all the Terrapins had to show for a 25-0 first-half shot advantage.

Morris scored in the second half before Dina Rizzo fed Messimer for her second score of the day. Then Morris struck again, dribbling through traffic and grounding a shot into the left corner to make it 4-0.

Nov. 2
Virginia 1

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. --Colleen Barbieri scored the game-winner in the first half and also recorded an assist as Maryland overwhelmed Virginia, 4-1, in an ACC semifinal match.

The Terrapins first got on the scoreboard when Rachel Hiskins collected a first-half penalty corner rebound and slid it toward Megan Kelly, who battled through a crowd to put the Terps on top, 1-0. Later, Caroline Walter fired a long hit into the circle where it was retrieved by Barbieri, who then ripped a shot through the legs of Virginia keeper Emily White. The Terps closed out the first half when Barbieri found Carissa Messimer for a score.

Maryland capped their scoring in the second half when Autumn Welsh buried one of her two penalty stroke opportunities. Virginia avoided a shutout with a late fast break goal by Jessica Coleman. Maryland second-half keeper Kerry Hearsey made two saves before the Cavalier goal.

ACC Championship

Game 20
Nov. 4

Maryland 3
Wake Forest 2

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. – A Caroline Walter long hit along the endline was tipped in by Dina Rizzo with 4:11 to play in a see-saw battle as the top-seeded Terrapins came back to beat Wake Forest, 3-2, to capture their fourth consecutive ACC Championship and fifth in the history of the program. Autumn Welsh registered an assist and led the Terp defensive effort to capture her second-straight ACC Tournament MVP award.

Maryland took advantage of their first corner opportunity of the game, when Sara Silvetti fired a pass down the left side of the cage, where it was tipped up and over WFU keeper Katie Ridd by Carissa Messimer.

The Demon Deacons tied the contest following a corner play. Maryland keeper Ashley Hohnstine made the initial stop on the direct hit and the following rebound, but the ball popped up where it was batted in by Jennie Shelton. Wake Forest took a 2-1 advantage on a similar play, when a rebounded save was punched into the cage by Heather Aughinbaugh.

But the Terrapins' persistence had no end, as they reeled off two goals in the second half. Messimer's second goal of the game knotted the score at 2-2 after Welsh received the ball and rifled it at the cage. Maryland took the lead for good when Walter's long hit along the endline was knocked in by Rizzo.

NCAA First Round

Game 21
Nov. 10

Fairfield 1

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Rachel Hiskins and Caroline Walter each netted two goals and Carissa Messimer handed out four assists as the Maryland Terrapins overpowered Fairfield, 7-1. Messimer's four helpers were the most by any Terrapin in a NCAA game in the school's 14 appearances in the championship tournament, and also ties for the third-most by any player in NCAA championship history.

Maryland came out firing from the first whistle, outshooting the Stags 16-0 in the opening period. Hiskins broke through for the Terps on a direct corner shot, and the floodgates opened from there. Walter dodged through traffic to bury Messimer's second assist of the game for her first score, and Dina Rizzo tipped in an indirect corner goal. Hiskins put the Terrapins up by four with a flick shot.

In the second half, Messimer fed Walter on a breakaway and Welsh netted a penalty stroke before Fairfield was able to piece together a 2 v. 1 where Alexia Kennedy set up all-time iza Kotowski for the Stags' lone score.

NCAA Second Round

Game 22
Nov. 11

Maryland 6
Syracuse 0

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Caroline Walter continued her postseason hot streak with a hat trick and Carissa Messimer scored a goal and dished out three assists on the day as Maryland downed Syracuse, 6-0.

The Terps got their offense going early, pounding the Syracuse cage with 28 shots in the first half on their way to a 38-1 advantage. Orange netminder Audrey Latsko was tremendous with 16 stops in the opening period and a total of 21 saves. Walter notched the first two goals of the match with a score on a rebound and then on a penalty corner. Angie Klingerman tipped in Messimer's second assist of the day to give Maryland a 3-0 halftime lead.

Sara Silvetti banged in her second corner shot in two days to open the second-period scoring, from Messimer and Autumn Welsh, who chipped in two assists.

Walter netted her third goal of the game and fifth in two days with a sweep of a Megan Kelly rebounded shot, and Messimer closed out the scoring with a flick.

NCAA Semifinal

Game 23
Nov. 16

Maryland 3
Wake Forest 2
2 overtimes

KENT, Ohio – It was déjà vu all over again for the Terrapins when Colleen Barbieri one-timed a cross from Dina Rizzo to end a 99 minute gritty, hard-fought match in Maryland's favor, 3-2. Trailing for much of the game to ACC-rival Wake Forest, the rookie and veteran connected to tie it up on an identical score at the end of the second half, and added the "golden goal" with 57 seconds to play in double-overtime to complete the Terp comeback.

Wake Forest began the contest on the attack, and registered a goal less than ten minutes into the action. After Ashley Hohnstine made a stop on a Jennie Shelton shot, Maria Whitehead slid forward to tip in the rebound. The Terrapins came back to tie it at 1-1 when Rachel Hiskins snaked into the circle and bounced a shot between Demon keeper Katie Ridd's legs. But Wake, which registered a 6-0 corner advantage in the first half, went ahead 2-1 on a direct hit by Kelly Doton. They took the lead into the halftime huddle.

Both teams scrambled back-and-forth to get their offenses going in the second half, and it was a seesaw battle. The Terrapins broke through late to tie the game, as Barbieri rifled the pass from Rizzo on a fast break.

Chances came for both teams in the first seven-a-side overtime, but neither team could find the back of the cage. Hohnstine, who finished with a season-high nine saves, thwarted fast break after fast break and stopped two extra-time corners.

The clock ticked down to under one minute in the second overtime when Rizzo, breaking toward the right side of the cage, skipped her second pass of the game to Barbieri on the left post, who one-timed it past Ridd.

Game 24
Nov. 18

Michigan 2
Maryland 0

KENT, Ohio -- Michigan used a stellar defensive performance to complete an improbable run through the NCAA Division I Field Hockey Championship with a 2-0 victory over second-seeded Maryland in the national championship game. The unseeded Wolverines scored a goal in each half and keeper Maureen Tasch made 11 saves — several of them spectacular — in posting her eighth shutout of the season.

The teams staged a defensive battle in the first half before Michigan's Adrienne Hortillosa scored off a corner on an assist by Kristi Gannon. In the second half, Maryland turned up its offensive pressure but could not break through. The Terrapins outshot Michigan 10-1 in the final 35 minutes, only to be turned away time and time again by Tasch and the Wolverines' defense.

Meanwhile, Michigan's only shot and only corner of the second half resulted in an insurance goal by Jessica Rose, who scored on another assist by Gannon.

University of Maryland

"Strive for clarity, but accept and understand ambiguity."

That phrase captures one way in which an educated person approaches the world and its challenges. Students who graduate from the University of Maryland have been exposed to the tools that allow them to put that perspective to work. Imparting such a perspective may be an ambitious project for undergraduate education, but to aim for anything less would be unworthy of a great university's goals for its students. Fourteen years ago, Promises to Keep, a plan for undergraduate education at Maryland, articulated those goals so eloquently we repeat them here.

Undergraduate education at Maryland "aims to provide students with a sense of identity and purpose, a concern for others, a sense of responsibility for the quality of life around them, a continuing eagerness for knowledge and understanding, and a foundation for a lifetime of personal enrichment."

As we learn with and from one another, we try to "develop human values," "celebrate tolerance and fairness," "contribute to the social conscience," "monitor and assess private and collective assumptions," and "recognize the glory, tragedy and humor of the human condition." Your years at the University of Maryland can provide you with all the tools you need to accomplish these goals. Students here are "educated to be able to read with perception and pleasure, write and speak with clarity and verve, handle numbers and computation proficiently, reason mathematically, generate clear questions and find probable arguments, reach substantiated conclusions, and accept ambiguity."

And we also hope you enjoy the journey.

About the University

The Campus

By virtually every measure of quality, the University of Maryland has gained national recognition as one of the fastest rising comprehensive research institutions in the country. The momentum of recent years has poised the university to move it into the top ranks of higher education and take leadership in shaping the research university of the 21st century.

The university has enjoyed a decade of momentum in all of the areas that affect quality, beginning with the quality of our students. For more than 10 years, every freshman class has been the most talented in the university's history, including this year's. Not only are their grade-point averages and SAT scores stellar, about half of them finished in the top 10 percent of their high school graduating class.

But Maryland students excel in more ways than just the classroom. They are leaders in the arts and culture, community service, civic engagement and athletics.

What's more, the student body is a model of diversity, with minorities making up more than 32 percent of all students, and at least one graduate and undergraduate student from every state in the nation.

The university has 65 graduate and undergraduate programs ranked in the Top 25 by U.S. News and World Report, up from just one program in 1991.

Sponsored research and outreach has nearly tripled in the same 10-year period, reaching $308.5 million for FY 01. Private giving has increased even more dramatically, from $17 million to $77 million in FY01. Alumni Association membership has been growing at an average rate of 10 percent a year since 1992.

One of the largest research universities in the United States, current enrollment stands at 25,099 undergraduate and 9,061 graduate. There are 94 undergraduate programs, 89 master's programs, 70 doctoral programs, and one first professional degree program. More than 100 centers and institutes are engaged in research and outreach.

Faculty at the University of Maryland, in all fields of knowledge, are engaged at the highest levels of national and international concern. The university's location near the center of federal policy-making and international political and economic activity enables it to play an active role in research and analysis of public policy.

Maryland is one of 30 public universities in the prestigious 63-member Association of American Universities and the only public institution in the Maryland-D.C. area with membership in the nation's most distinguished honor society, Phi Beta Kappa.

A Winning Tradition

Libraries

Seven libraries make up the University of Maryland library system. McKeldin (main) Library, Architecture Library, Art Library, Engineering and Physical Sciences Library, Hornbake Library, Performing Arts Library, White Memorial (Chemistry) Library.

These libraries constitute the largest university research library institution in the Washington metropolitan area, providing vital resources to researchers, visiting scholars, and businesses throughout the region. The libraries' holdings include more than 2.5 million volumes, 24,000 subscriptions to periodicals and nearly 5 million items available in microfilm format.

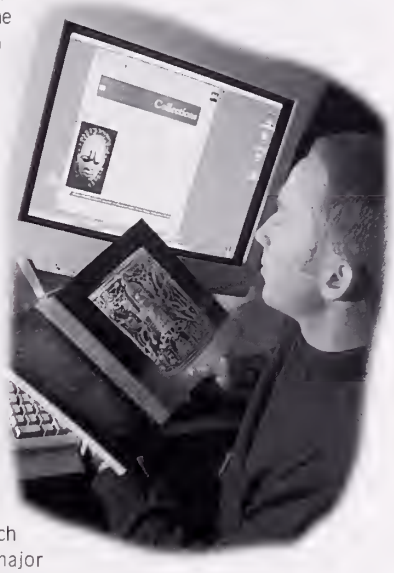
Research

Opportunities for conducting research abound at the University of Maryland, College Park, and in the surrounding area, both for faculty to advance their own expertise and bring their insights into the classroom, and for students to begin their exploration of their special interests with practical experience. On campus, special facilities and a number of organized research centers, bureaus, and institutes promote the acquisition and analysis of new knowledge in the arts, sciences and applied fields.

The university's enviable location — just nine miles from downtown Washington, D.C., and approximately 30 miles from both Baltimore and Annapolis — enhances the research of its faculty and students by providing access to some of the finest libraries and research centers in the country.

Service

Programs of public service are central to the overall mission of the university. The philosophy is reflected in the wide array of programs and initiatives that benefit the state's business, agriculture and education communities.



With more than 90 high technology firms in the three-county area of Montgomery, Prince George's and Frederick counties, the university has found abundant opportunity to extend its business and technology outreach programs to the region. Many of these programs are part of the Engineering Research Center, which operates the Technology Advancement Program and the Maryland Industrial Partnerships, programs designed to provide Maryland entrepreneurs and small businesses with research facilities, technical assistance, administrative support, and access to technology that will advance their economic base.

The Institute for Systems Research has formed partnerships with major corporations, including Lockheed Martin, Westinghouse, BF Goodrich, Hughes Aircraft and Dupont to apply advanced systems research to solving industry problems in the fields of communications, manufacturing, controls and robotics.

The university last year opened the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center, with its six state-of-the art performance halls, which has quickly become a center of cultural programming in the Washington metropolitan area. The university also boasts four art galleries and a broad range of public art throughout the beautiful campus. Additionally intercollegiate, club and intramural sports provide students of all levels an opportunity to participate as spectators or athletes.

University President

California '59
Fifth Year
at Maryland

C.D. Mote Jr.

When C.D. "Dan" Mote Jr. became the 19th president of the University of Maryland on Sept 1, 1998 he proclaimed it a university "on the move." Four years later, under his guidance, Maryland continues to move – at an ever accelerating rate – on the field, in the classroom, in the community, and in the world.

The University of Maryland is the state of Maryland's most important asset, says Mote: "The future of the state depends on this university."

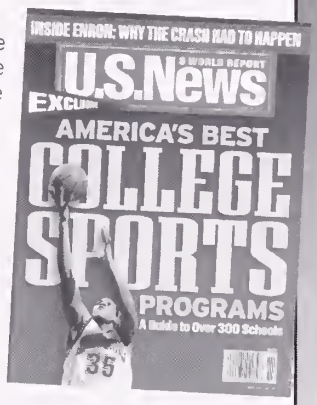
Fulfilling that responsibility is a big job, but it's a role that Mote is accustomed to, having spent his entire academic career at the University of California at Berkeley, where he earned all his degrees, taught engineering and eventually became vice chancellor for University Relations before coming to Maryland.

One of Mote's first tasks here was to serve on a governor's task force to examine the funding and organization of the University System of Maryland. The task force recommended, and the General Assembly enacted into law, a reaffirmation of the university's flagship status and a commitment to funding at levels comparable to the best public universities in the nation.

As president, Mote is committed to making that asset even greater by creating a culture of excellence and civility across the campus, continuing to emphasize the highest quality education for students, strengthening the university's internal and external connections, and achieving distinction as an institution where discovery takes place every day and everywhere.

The university's progress in each of these areas can be measured by the quality of its programs; the stature of its faculty; the talent of its students; partnerships with business; impact on the state's economy; its ability to apply discoveries to global, national and regional problems; and its world-class, state-of-the-art facilities.

Quality Programs



Over the past decade, Maryland's programs have been improving by leaps and bounds. We currently have 65 graduate and undergraduate programs ranked in the top 25 nationally by U.S. News & World Report, compared with just one program a decade ago.

While the university's academic successes are across the board, it has emerged as a true powerhouse in business, computer science, earth sciences, engineering, education and journalism. The Robert H. Smith School of Business has achieved top 10 rankings from such beacon publications as the Financial Times of London and the Wall Street Journal. Every department in the College of Education has programs ranked in the U.S. News top 25, and the Counseling and Personnel Services Program has long been ranked tops in the nation.

Faculty Stature

With the addition during Mote's third year of a Nobel Laureate in Physics and three more Pulitzer Prize winners (to join three already on the faculty), Maryland continues to attract the best faculty available. More than 30 faculty are members of the national academies in their fields, the highest professional recognition attainable.

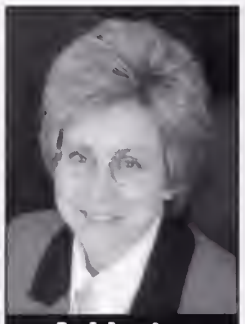
Experts on the Maryland faculty are regularly sought by the news media for their views on a wide variety of issues, including politics, international affairs, social trends, economics, the environment, science and technology.

Talented Students

Over the past 10 years, it has become a virtual cliché to announce that each year's new freshman class is the most talented ever. The average GPA of entering students in fall 2002 is expected to exceed 3.90, while the average SAT score is nearly 1300.

Not surprisingly, the number of students enrolling in honors and other special programs has also skyrocketed in recent years. As many as 40 percent of all new freshmen are now enrolled in such programs as Honors, Gemstone, College Park Scholars and other living-learning communities that bring together students with similar academic interests in a residential setting.

Maryland Athletics



Athletics Director
Elon '74
Ninth Year at Maryland

Deborah A. Yow

Deborah A. Yow is in the ninth year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland, a year that has seen unprecedented success and achievement in Maryland athletics. Each year has brought about continued improvement and accomplishment in Terrapin athletics. In Yow's eight years at Maryland, the Terrapins have won a remarkable nine NCAA national championships as Maryland athletics has soared to new heights.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony of her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability. Likewise, her election to the presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics two years ago is an indication of the respect with which she is regarded among its 6,100 members representing 1,600 colleges in the U.S. and Canada. She was recently singled out by Street and Smith Sports Business Journal as one of the leading administrators in the U.S. and she received the Carl Maddox Sport Management Award presented by the United States Sports Academy for excellence in athletics administration.

Yow, who recently served on the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Division I Budget Committee, is a strong and steady voice on behalf of intercollegiate athletics in America. Since taking over as AD at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:

- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goal-oriented organization.
- Balanced all eight of the annual department's budgets (the first balanced budgets in the 10 years prior to her arrival). The budget has now reached $40 million annually and the sizable prior operative debts have been eradicated.
- Greatly enhanced the academic support services provided for student-athletes, with an enviable exhausted eligibility graduation rate of approximately 85 percent.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in the upper 15 percent of all NCAA Division I institutions.
- Significantly expanded marketing and fund-raising efforts on behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a result, private gifts to athletics have increased 240 percent and corporate sponsorship revenues have increased by 275 percent during her tenure at Maryland.
- Continued to dramatically improve venues and facilities for the department's 25 teams.
- Implemented a strategic management model.
- Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy with management, marketing and fund-raising applications.
- Significantly improved customer care in every area.

The most recent achievements of Maryland athletics are exceptional:

- Selected in 2002 by U.S. News & World Report as one of the Top 20 athletic programs in the nation (for overall quality and competitive excellence).
- In football, won the Atlantic Coast Conference championship and played in the 2002 Orange Bowl. In men's basketball, won the ACC regular season in 2002, as well as the NCAA national championship. The Terps are among only a few NCAA institutions to have achieved at this distinguished level in these sports in the same year.
- Hired the Associated Press National Coach of the Year, Brenda Frese, as the new women's basketball coach.
- Hired Dave Cottle, the third winningest active men's lacrosse coach in the U.S.
- Field hockey played for the national championship.
- Women's lacrosse has continued its winning ways and has won seven consecutive national championships through 2001.
- Enhancing football facilities significantly with Team House and practice field upgrades.
- Moved into the new $125 million Comcast Center.
- The athletics budget was balanced for the eighth consecutive year.
- In 2001-02 10 Maryland teams competed in NCAA postseason play.
- The productivity, morale, and the competitive and academic achievement of Terrapin athletics are exceptional and continue to gain momentum.

Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past eight years, Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied ... our vision is to be one of the top 10 programs in the nation consistently ... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools ... to work hard and work smart ... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves."

As a manager and a leader, she clearly models these principles. She is the only known current AD in NCAA Division I who has hired both the National Coach of the Year in football (while at Maryland) and the National Coach of the Year in men's basketball (while at Saint Louis University). Yow is known as "a coach's AD," while also being a highly organized, strategic and proactive leader and administrator. Quite simply, Debbie Yow personifies the relational and management dynamics that are necessary to be an excellent administrator.

A successful former coach at the University of Kentucky and at the University of Florida, she moved into athletics administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, followed by a highly successful tenure as AD at Saint Louis University.

She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics management and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States.

Summing up the entire athletics program, Dr. Yow recently observed, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets, our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarship, and the Maryland Educational Foundation and M Club members who serve and give liberally. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of our success ... and the basis for our bright future."

Seventh Year at Maryland

Field Hockey Supervisor

Jane Mullens

Jane Mullens is in her fifth year as assistant athletics director for compliance following two years as the department's compliance coordinator.

She serves as the department's senior level manager in NCAA compliance and certification matters related to recruiting, eligibility, financial aid and rules education.

In February 1999, she was promoted to senior women's administrator. Her responsibilities were expanded to include the supervision of four sports programs: softball, field hockey and men's and women's tennis.

Mullens earned a bachelor's degree from Western Washington University in 1992 and a master's in sport management from the University of Miami (Fla.) in 1994.

She was an assistant in the compliance office at Miami in 1995 before being promoted to compliance coordinator in January 1996. As compliance coordinator for the Hurricanes, she was responsible for creating and implementing a rules-education program and creating and monitoring documentation related to recruiting, eligibility, financial aid and rules education.

She was named to a similar position at the University of Maryland in July 1996. She began her career in athletic compliance as an intern at Miami in 1994.

She is married to Rob Mullens, Maryland's senior associate athletics director.

Academic Support & Career Dev.

The University of Maryland is committed to providing the highest quality education to all of its students. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to provide student-athletes excellent opportunities to participate in an intercollegiate athletics program of the highest quality, with the result that their athletics participation becomes an integral and valued component of their total educational experience at the university.

Terrapin student-athletes will find that the same hard work and discipline that has earned them success in athletics competition is also required in the classroom. Balancing the significant time demands and responsibilities required to be a successful student-athlete at the highest collegiate level is no small task. Therefore, as a result of their commitment to representing the university through athletics, Terrapin student-athletes are able to utilize support programs designed to meet their specific needs.

Melvin Robinson
ASCDU Counselor/
Field Hockey

The mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU) is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that will enhance academic progress, facilitate career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of all UM student-athletes.

The Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center for Terrapin student-athletes, named for long-time Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is located in the Comcast Center. It features a study center that includes 25 desktop computers, a tutoring center, a classroom, a CHAMPS/Life Skills resource room and individual offices for six professional academic counselors, a director of enrichment programs, an assistant program coordinator and two graduate assistants. In addition, the center's extended site is located in the Gossett Football Team House, and includes office space for two professional counselors, a program assistant and a 16-station desktop computer center.

Academic courses, programs and services offered by ASCDU include the following:

- Prospective student-athlete orientation
- Academic counseling
- NCAA academic eligibility monitoring
- Academic enrichment and career development presentations and workshops
- Accredited tutorial support
- Individualized learning program
- EDCP 108-K (College learning strategies and skills)
- EDCP 108-M (Math learning strategies and skills)
- UNIV 100/101 (First-year transitions to the university)

The Staff

Nine full-time professionals, two graduate assistants, tutorial support staff and student associates comprise the unit's workforce. Melvin Robinson serves the field hockey team's academic support counselor.

Student-Athlete Advisory Council

The Student-Athlete Advisory Council (S.A.A.C.) plays an important role in the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. It consists of two representatives from each varsity sport and meets on a regular basis with representatives from the athletic administration. The S.A.A.C. mission is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by developing leadership skills, promoting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image on the Maryland campus, local area and nationally.

CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs

ASCDU houses the NCAA's (National Collegiate Athletic Association) Challenging Athletes' Minds for Personal Success Program (C.H.A.M.P.S.) and the NCAA Life Skills Program. The ASCDU staff, in collaboration with various other Department of Intercollegiate Athletics' units and campus resources, strives to provide a systematic personal development program designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The focus of the program is on the individual academically, athletically and emotionally, and on the changing needs and skills of that individual in the years during college and after graduation. The menu of presentations, workshops and seminars is a comprehensive and balanced system of "life learning" programs promoted for use by each varsity sport team.

Highlights of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs:

- Support efforts of every student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation
- Use athletics as preparation for success in life
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes
- Promote respect for diversity among student-athletes
- Enhance interpersonal relationships in the lives of student-athletes
- Assist student-athletes in building positive self-esteem
- Enable student-athletes to make meaningful contributions to their communities
- Promote ownership by the student-athletes of their academic, athletic, personal and social responsibilities
- Enhance partnerships between the NCAA, member institutions and their communities for the purpose of education
- Encourage the development of leadership skills

CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs Commitment Statements

Commitment to Academic Excellence To support the academic progress of the student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation.

Commitment to Athletic Excellence To build philosophical foundations for the development of athletic programs that are broad-based, equitable and dedicated to the well-being of the student-athlete.

Commitment to Personal Development To support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle for student-athletes, encouraging the emotional well-being, personal growth and decision making skills.

Strength & Conditioning

In the highly competitive collegiate field hockey world the off-field preparation of the student-athlete is a critical component to the on-field success of any Division I program. Dwight Galt, Maryland's director of strength and conditioning, and Barry Kagan, who works with the field hockey team, believe strongly that a solid off-field training program can dramatically improve levels of performance, as well as significantly reduce the chance of injury. The benefit of performing structured strength and power training throughout the entire year has allowed the Terps to reach new levels in physical development.

At the University of Maryland, the maximal development of athleticism is the primary goal of the strength and conditioning program. To accomplish this requires more than just strength and power training in the weight room. Speed improvement, agility, flexibility, conditioning, plyometrics, and nutrition also play critical roles. The Terps' strength staff places substantial emphasis on all these areas, with special attention on the improvement of speed potential. Galt and his staff employ a wide range of state-of-the-art training methods to assist in enhancing all aspects of speed development.

The Terps are fortunate to train in one of the premier weight training facilities in the nation. Conveniently located in the Gossett Team House, this facility has excellent aesthetic appeal, with two magnificent skylights and large windows overlooking the field at Byrd Stadium. The Terps' spacious weight room includes 7,200 square feet of functional floor space, with two elevated offices.

Credentials: Media and photographer credentials for events at Maryland's Artificial Turf Facility may be obtained by working press, radio and television by writing or calling Mark Fratto in the Maryland Athletic Media Relations Office, 2725 Comcast Center, College Park, MD 20741-0295. All requests should be submitted at least 48 hours prior to the event by phoning the Media Relations Office at (301) 314-8052. Since space is limited, accommodations are on a priority basis: daily newspapers and wire services, originating radio and television stations, national weekly or monthly publications, electronic media outlets, local and regional television crews. Priority is granted to members of the media who cover Maryland athletics on a regular basis, and to visiting media members. Photo passes will be issued only to accredited photographers on assignment.
